PERCUMON FESTIVAL 2024

Percumon is the annual International Afro-Brazilian Percussion Festival that takes place in Sagunto and Puerto de Sagunto. Percumon was born in 2015 and is, nowadays, a reference among the batucada festivals in Europe, becoming a cultural bridge with Brazil! If you want to find out more, then click here for all of the festival deets!

Our lifeline:

Throughout the festival, I'll keep us in the loop with organizers, smoothing out any hiccups and guiding us through last-minute changes. Count on me & the Katumba Team to navigate language barriers and introduce us to the best local spots, ensuring an unforgettable experience.

WHY PICK A KATUMBA TRIP EXPERIENCE?

Juliana here, the co-founder of Katumba Drumming! I craft personalised travel adventures inspired by my own globetrotting experiences! I have also taken part as a drummer in MANY national and international festivals and workshops of this kind! I've lived and travelled all over, and now I'm bringing those incredible opportunities to YOU! Every year, we fine-tune our experiences to make them even better!

Finding the best experiences:

I have scoured drumming festivals aligning with Katumba's values: inclusive, diverse, and featuring top international teachers. After enduring less-than-ideal events, I discovered Percumon—and I'm thrilled to share this with you!

Organising Made Easy:

Coordinating a trip to Spain involves a ton of logistics, especially when navigating Spanish-speaking environments. We handle everything from registration to drum selection, sparing you the hassle of back-and-forth and language barriers. We ensure a smooth sailing trip, from organising wristbands to festival tees to events & accommodation!
